

Pahelo is currently a key partner in the Student Crime Strategic Steering Group alongside the Home Office, National Union of Students, Association of University Chief Security Council, British Council and other University & Govt bodies.

We have recently helped review the Codes of Standards for Halls of Residence and are currently assisting the National Prevent Delivery Unit in producing a Preventing Violent Extremism Guidance for Police Officers working within Universities.

Harvey and Carol are also talking with colleagues from the Australia on how police our Universities and deal with issues on campus etc.
